

FREE CLASS

Exploring Your Scandinavian Roots

This four-hour class will be taught by Kristine Leander, author of “Norwegian Seattle,” and Barbara Chesley, an experienced genealogist specializing in Swedish records. Part I will cover the culture and customs that immigrants brought to this country. Part II will demonstrate how to conduct family history research using readily accessible information. Attendees will have the opportunity to research their own ancestors using various websites and genealogical tools. Class limited to 20 students.
