PSGS Educational Opportunities

Exploring Your Scandinavian Roots Tuesday, February 7, 2012
Where: KRL Sylvan Way Branch Time: 10am - 2pm
Instructors: Kristine Leander & Barbara Chesley

Part one will be presented by Kristine Leander and cover the culture and customs that Scandinavian immigrants brought to this country.

Part two will demonstrate how to conduct family history research using readily accessible information. Attendees will have the opportunity to research their own ancestors using various websites and genealogical tools.

BRING to the class:

Laptop Computer

Library card number

Name and parish (if known) of the person you want to research

Brown Bag Lunch

Genealogy 101: Beginning Genealogy Saturday, Feb. 25, 2012
Where: KRL Sylvan Way Branch Time: 10am – 2pm
Instructor: Jean Yager

Learn ancestor charts, family group sheets and the basics of listing sources. Get tips on conducting family interviews and organizing papers. Explore computerized genealogy.

Both classes limited to 20 participants.

Please register in advance by calling (360) 475-9172 or visit us in the Genealogy Center at the Kitsap Regional Library, 1301 Sylvan Way, Bremerton. Classes subject to change; see the Puget Sound Genealogical Society website for updates, www.pusogensoc.org
