“Who Do You Think You Are?”

Don't miss Ancestry.com and NBC TV as they tell 7 amazing stories beginning Friday March 5 at 8pm.

Regretfully Cyril Taylor has resigned as Backtracker editor after many years of dedicated service to PSGS. We are very grateful for Cyril's many contributions.

PSGS Educational Opportunities

Monday Mar 1, 1:00pm – 5:00pm at PSGS Library

“Navigating Ancestry.com”

Shanda Hoover facilitates this class. Explore the many features and benefits of the ancestry online service. Learn to create a tree on Ancestry.com. Class is free to members and $10.00 for non-members. Bring a sack lunch and enjoy the day. Space is limited to 10. Call 360-874-8813 to check for available seating. All classes are held at PSGS Library unless stated otherwise.

Saturday Mar 20, 10:00am-2:00pm

“Genealogy 102 - Using the US Census”

Linda Webb will continue the Genealogy Series that started with 101. This is a hands-on class for anyone who has taken Genealogy 101 or who has a basic understanding of genealogy and wants to know “What do I do next?” Class participants will learn how to use the census to track their family. Class is free to members and $10.00 for non-members. Bring a sack lunch and enjoy the day. Space is limited so call 360-874-8813 to check for available seating.

Second Saturday Matinee

Saturday March 13, 1:00pm
